1   Make passive sentences in present simple. Then make passive questions.

Example:

use │ a new bus │ town

A new bus is used in the/our town.

Where is a new bus used?

a. spend on clothes │ a lot of money │ December

_____

When _____

b. find │ a lot of dogs │ streets

_____

Where _____

c. light │ a fire │ make heat

_____

Why _____

d. sometimes close │ old factories

_____

How often _____

e. write and send │ one new e-mail │ every minute

_____

How often _____

f. buy │ new shoes │ shoe shops

_____

Where _____

g. sell │ all the old furniture

_____

Why _____

h. play │ the game │ outside

_____

Where _____

i. pay │ the bills │ at once

_____

When _____

j. eat │ all the food │ party

_____

Where _____

2 Make passive sentences in past simple about yesterday. Then make passive questions.

Example:

use │ a new bus │ town

A new bus was used in the/our town yesterday.

Where was a new bus used?

a. spend on clothes │ a lot of money

_____

When _____

b. find │ a lot of dogs │ streets

_____

Where _____

c. light │ a fire │ make heat

_____

Why _____

d. close │ old factories

_____

When _____

e. write and send │ one new e-mail │ every minute

_____

How often _____

f. buy │ new shoes │ shoe shops

_____

Where _____

g. sell │ all the old furniture

_____

Why _____

h. play │ the game │ outside

_____

Where _____

i. pay │ the bills │ at once

_____

When _____

j. eat │ all the food │ party

_____

Where _____

Key

1

    a. A lot of money is spent on clothes in December.
        When is a lot of money spent on clothes?
    b. A lot of dogs are found in the streets.
        Where are a lot of dogs found?
    c. A fire is lit to make heat.
        Why is a fire lit?
    d. Old factories are sometimes closed.
        How often are old factories closed?
    e. One new e-mail is written and sent every minute.
        How often is one new e-mail written and sent?
    f. New shoes are bought in shoe shops.
        Where are new shoes bought?
    g. All the old furniture is sold.
        Why is all the furniture sold?
    h. The game is played outside.
        Where is the game played?
    i. The bills are paid at once.
        When are the bills paid?
    j. All the food is eaten at the party.
        Where is all the food eaten?

2

    a. A lot of money was spent on clothes yesterday.
        When was a lot of money spent on clothes?
    b. A lot of dogs were found in the streets yesterday.
        Where were a lot of dogs found yesterday?
    c. A fire was lit to make heat yesterday.
        Why was a fire lit yesterday?
    d. Old factories were closed yesterday.
        When were old factories closed?
    e. One new e-mail was written and sent every minute yesterday.
        How often was one new e-mail written and sent yesterday?
    f. New shoes were bought in shoe shops yesterday.
        Where were new shoes bought yesterday?
    g. All the old furniture was sold yesterday.
        Why was all the furniture sold yesterday?
    h. The game was played outside yesterday.
        Where was the game played yesterday?
    i. The bills were paid at once yesterday.
        When were the bills paid?
    j. All the food was eaten at the party yesterday.
        Where was all the food eaten yesterday?